My dear Jim

Year to year

Thanks awfully for doing my 86/4ing so nicely and quietly. I wish I could come over, and give you a good long hang, and lots of kisses, tongues would wag, wouldn't they?

Thank you for posting off. You are so kind.

Poor Jim does want to see you so badly. But his little wife won't let him leave him, even if Mrs. Lian is here, so must like leave patience & wait well. Sometimes the tears will come when I think about my dear little Jim, and can't see him. So glad you had such a happy time at Felix's house.

I see you leave with calm all your budding yet. I expect you are waiting for me. With fondest love. From your dear Jim
